- ❖ Country Towns
- ❖ Rural Villages
- ❖ Wildlife (sightings possible along much of the drive)

(some 30km of gravel roads between Honeysuckle Creek picnic area and the Merriwa side of Goulburn River National Park, but suitable for all vehicles)

◀ Sandy Hollow

Small rural village, with many vineyards and horse studs, it was put on the map by the infamous Sandy Hollow railway being built during the 1930's depression. It remained unfinished until the 1980's, when the line was completed to allow shipment of coal from Ulan to the port at Newcastle.

➤ east along Golden Highway turn right onto

◀ Bylong Valley Way

1 km

Cross the bridge over the Goulburn River. This was built in the 1950's to replace the old bridge destroyed by flooding in 1955. The prominent peak of Mount Dangar (670m above sea level) can be seen to the right.

➤ Pass Collingrove and Byrley Studs on the left and continue on to.

◀ James Estate Winery

10.7 km

James Estate Winery is set within the 1560 acre property. The complex contains a fully integrated wine manufacturing and bottling facility as well as a spacious cellar door and tasting area open 7 days a week. James Estate exports globally.

◀ Detour - Baerami Creek Road

14.6 km

The road follows the floor of this scenic valley. Just past Baerami Thoroughbreds on the right is Baerami Homestead, a 2 storey Victorian mansion built of local sandstone in 1875. The valley also contains olive, cattle and pecan nut farms.

◀ Baerami Oil Shale Relics 24 kms down Baerami Creek Rd. These relics are in the Wollemi National Park. Easy access is via 1km of private property. This is an important historic site featuring machinery and other relics of a turn of the century oil shale mining venture.

◀ Reubens Fire Trail . starts at the Relics and links up with Widden Creek Rd 8.4km further on. This is a good walking trail passing old mine adits, powder magazines and hand built roads

➤ Return the 24 kms to the Bylong Valley Way and to

- <Baerami 14.8 km Tiny rural village. The hall was built in 1925 with timber slabs and is still used for bush dances, play groups and other local functions.
- 16.6 km >Continue over the Baerami Creek bridge passing Baerami Church ( now privately owned) on the left and Dingo Creek where the Bushranger Thunderbolt had a hide-out.

- <Honey-suckle Creek Picnic Area 43.8 km a fireplace and toilets and is surrounded by thick bushland and trees.
- <Cox's Gap Tunnel 44.7 km
- is on the right. This is a straight 761m tunnel and was one of the few parts of the original Sandy Hollow Railway project to be completed. To avoid going over the steep Gap it was used by motorists on the Ulan Rd until "reclaimed" as a railway tunnel in 1982. In the 1970's it featured in the opening sequence for the TV motor show Torque with Peter Wherrett with a car bursting from the tunnel. It is now mainly used to transport coal from Ulan and ore from Cobar.
